The first of these is the fact that the system of taxation is not uniform. The rate of tax varies from one place to another, and the same rate is not applied to all classes of property.
 This is a serious defect, and one which should be remedied. The second defect is that the system is not based on the principle of equality. The rich pay less than the poor, and the same is true of the different classes of property. This is also a serious defect, and one which should be remedied. The third defect is that the system is not based on the principle of justice. The same rate is not applied to all classes of property, and the same is true of the different places. This is also a serious defect, and one which should be remedied.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the smell of the sea. It was a salty, fresh scent that I had never before.
 The sun was shining brightly, and the water was a deep, vibrant blue. I felt a sense of freedom and adventure. The waves were crashing against the shore, and the sound was so loud and powerful. I had heard that the ocean was beautiful, but I didn't realize how much I would love it. The sand was soft and warm, and the air was so clean. I had found a new world, and I was in love with it.
